CAYOTE'S BLOODY RAID.

A Terrible Battle With Eighty Bandits at Salinas, Mexico.

led by El Cayote, the Notorious Bandit, and a Number of Police Killed—The Fire Burns Still Operating at Cleveland.

MONTREY, Mex., Oct. 6.—[Later information from Salinas City, the scene of Thursday's bloody outrage, confirms the first report that the attack was organized and led by the notorious bandit, El Cayote. (The Wolf.) Monday night El Cayote made his escape from jail at Nueva Laredo, on the Rio Grande. It is believed he bribed his jailers to allow him to escape, and immediately fled to the mountains and set about gathering his old band of outlaws together. El Cayote had solemnly sworn to take the life of Alcaide Santos for the part the latter took in causing his arrest for the Bandit's train robbery, in which Pablo Quintana, the Mayor of Nueva Laredo, was also implicated, and afterward impeached and removed from office.

At Ramos, some twenty miles from Salinas, El Cayote massacred his band of eighty men, from which point they struggled into Salinas.

About 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, when the Alcaide and other municipal officers had returned from their daily siesta, a small band of ill men was noticed about the plaza, in the neighborhood of the Prefecture. The appearance of a mounted squad, with El Cayote at their head, was the signal of attack. Rodriguez, the Chief of Police, with half a dozen assistants, rushed to the Prefecture and closed the doors on the excited mob. A fusillade continued until after dark, when the mob broke and fled. El Cayote appeared, dragging the lifeless body of Alcaide Santos, while another bandit threw Rodriguez's body into the middle of the crowd. All the stores in the city were closed immediately on the break and the doors barred.

The exact number killed and wounded is not known, but it is believed that the bandits carried their dead and wounded away with them. The citizens claim to have counted ten dead bandits about the street, the result of the terrible fire from the windows of the Prefecture with repeating rifles. Five policemen were mortally wounded, and two are supposed to be dead.

The municipal buildings were sacked and everything of value carried away. A few shops were also gutted. No effort was made by the citizens to arrest the bandits.

Cayote lured his men on the plain after the attack, stating that they would now go and loot the houses. He had said to the bandits: "I declared he would kill the authorities of Palo Blanco and Bustamante, and then see the mountains. Toward midnight, after including in a disorganized group of bandits his band, numbering at least eighty well armed men, took their dead and started westward in a disorganized group. Scattering and sudden attacks are expected to occur within a day or two at several points. The federal authorities are about to send troops.

Fire-Bugs.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 6.—The fire-bug who has been haunting the city since the Yokel, in Long street, a narrow thoroughfare in the rear of Superior street, was started in a row of store buildings filled with barrels, boxes and straw. The place was admirably chosen for the starting point of a destructive conflagration, and had the fire not been speedily discovered, such would have been the result.

A few moments afterward fire was discovered in the storage room on the fourth floor of the Leader building, an apartment seldom visited. The flames were extinguished by the employees. The scene disclosed a deliberate attempt to burn the building.

The other fire was in the printing house of Short & Forman. It is possible that this was accidental.

The local Board of Underwriters have offered $500 and the National Board $1,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the Leader building, an apartment seldom visited. The flames were extinguished by the employees. The scene disclosed a deliberate attempt to burn the building.

WASHINGTON.

The Attempt to Suppress Favoritism in the Navy.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The action of Secretary Chandler in designating an advisory board to aid him in selecting for detail officers of the navy, instead of leaving the matter to the discretion of the Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, has been the absorbing topic of discussion at the Navy Department since the order was issued. It is generally regarded as the first step toward abolishing the absurd system of patronage, with the conflicting orders, which has in the past been the bane of the navy. Scarcely an officer devoid of fair play has a word to say against Secretary Chandler's action. It is generally believed that the new regime will result in the abolition of favoritism in promotion and detailed for duty. As there are some cases being charged against those in control. That the bureau system is a drawback to efficient service there can be no doubt, as the line of demarcation between the duties of the different bureau chiefs is so indistinct as to bring about conflicting orders. An instance of the kind was cited by an officer who has just returned from a long cruise, which is an excellent argument in favor of an advisory board. The Bureau of Steam Engineering controls the amount of coal which shall be used. The Chief of this bureau says to the commander of a vessel about to sail: "You shall take on board 500 tons of coal for this cruise." Then follow the orders from the Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting. The Chief of this bureau says to the same commander: "You shall not burn more than 400 tons of coal on this voyage." Here are two orders from two bureaus. Now comes the third. The Chief of the Bureau of Navigation orders the Commander to sail for Port Blank and to make the trip in three weeks. The amount of coal required to obey this last order within the specified time is 600 tons, yet the commander is allowed to take only 500 and to burn only 400 tons. It is really to be seen that in this instance the three orders conflict to such an extent as to destroy the power of the commander to comply with his latest order, and this is a case of the many cases in which the eight different bureaus of the Navy Department fail to harmonize.

VITRIOL THROWING.

A Philadelphia Girl's Attempt to Win Back Her Lover.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 6.—Annie Van Reld, a young woman about twenty-two years of age, was held in $1,000 bail by Magistrate Lukens to-day for a further hearing, charged with assault on Henry Myers. The latter is a member of the liquor firm of A. & H. Myers, on Third street near Race, and travels for the firm. The assault occurred last Friday night, at Eighth and Spring Garden streets, where Myers alleges that Miss Van Reld approached him, and, without warning, threw the contents of a bottle of vitriol over him. He tried to dodge the acid, but received it all on the back part of his neck and shoulders. He is badly burned and unable to work. The girl's story is somewhat different. She states that for six years past Myers has been paying court to her. A short time ago they had a quarrel, and he left her. From that time on she never saw nor heard from him. She learned, however, that he was shortly to marry a girl, and she could not let him wed for her. She walked down the street toward him, and, without warning, and he would instantly become her faithful and constant lover again. "I took it home," she continued, "little thinking of the result," and sent him a note asking him to meet me at Eighth street and Fairmount avenue on Friday night. When he came, I told him I was waiting for him. We walked down the street together. I endeavored to win back his affections but without success, and at Spring Garden street I threw the acid in his face. I had no idea what it was, or I would not have done it."

BLOWN TO ATOMS.

A Terrific Explosion in a Powder Cap Factory.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 6.—About 8 Saturday morning a sickening and fatal accident occurred in a powder cap factory. The explosion, which was caused by a powder cap, blew the factory to atoms. The material used is a fulminating compound, the ingredients of which are a patent right secret. It is necessary that the ingredients should be kept moist to prevent an explosion, and the workmen are in imminent danger of being blown to atoms at any moment by a small particle drying on the bowl.

This morning a mixer named James Goodwin, aged about thirty, was at work in the West Court street, when he started to mix a quantity of the compound which remained in the bowl from yesterday, and when he started to pound it a terrific explosion ensued, which blew the shed to pieces in which the mixing room was located, and the young man was killed. Goodwin was extracted from the debris in a terrible plight. Unconsciousness failed to come to his relief, and his agony was heartrending to witness. His whole body was one blackened mass. His eyes had been burned out. The flesh hung in shreds from his face, and even his nose was blown from his feet. Patrol No. 3 removed the dying man to the City Hospital, where death relieved his sufferings at 9:30.

MISS CARPENTER HEARD FROM.

Evident That She Sailed in the Bohemia and Drowned Herself.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 6.—Information has just been received by Carpenter's relatives that the missing Sarah C. Carpenter, in the form of a telegram from a Cuban steamer ship Liverpool, stating that a young lady answering the description of Miss Carpenter recently came to Mr. Goldsmith and claimed for their wages, claiming that they had paid out the left hand money, but had not been paid the money, but had appropriated it to his own use. An examination of the books showed that during the months of May, June and July, Miss Carpenter had received $1,140.50. He was arrested at No. 77 St. Mark's place. The officers found that his wife and four children were living there in abject poverty. The wife gave birth to a child Tuesday, and she and the children were actually suffering from want of food in the apartment, and the officers did not have a cent with which to purchase any. The officers were so touched by the deplorable condition in which they found her that they procured a nurse for the woman from Barbara Home. A subscription was taken up among the members of the detective force, and a purse of $20 was sent to Mrs. English admitted that he had embezzled the money and let it at horse races. He was looked up by police officers and taken to the police station.

Death of a Prominent Citizen.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Hon. John Ellis, of the Schenectady locomotive works died suddenly Saturday morning of his farm near here. He represented Schenectady County in the Assembly of 1892, and was a heavy stockholder in the locomotive works in which his brother Charles G. Edwards and William Ellis, of New York, are the principal stockholders.

A Fated Inmate.

DEKROIT, Oct. 6.—The Missouri County Poor House Asylum, at Big Rock, Mich., burned last night. By the prompt and courageous action of Keeper East and his assistants, all the inmates were rescued, and were removed in safety. The structure was one leased by the county for temporary use, pending the rebuilding of the one burned a year ago.

Story in Recovering.

DEKROIT, Oct. 6.—Judge Chipman, of this city, has received a letter from Mrs. Wilbur F. Story, Chicago, stating that her husband is slowly but surely recovering from his affliction. She has strong hopes of his regaining the full vigor of his mental powers.

SAD CASE OF DROWNING.

Four Deaths the Result of Too Much Bad Whisky.

Particulars of the Late Lynching in Mississippi—Brown Sullivan's Narrow Escape—William Smith Mobbed—Laxity of Justice.

St. LOUIS, Oct. 6.—In Monroe County Jonathan Hickman, a well-to-do farmer, living near Florida, was on his way home from town with a horse and buggy. Besides himself there were in the vehicle his daughter-in-law and her two children, aged seven and four years. He was partly intoxicated. About half way on his trip he came to Brushy Creek. It was swollen by recent rains almost to the proportions of a river and was running very swiftly. He was warned by a neighbor to turn back, but he refused to attempt to ford the creek, but he did not heed the precaution. He drove the horse into the water, and the buggy went down. The animal from his feet, and the whole outfit went down the stream. People living in the vicinity heard their cries and made efforts to rescue them, but they were too late. The horse and buggy were still alive, were found on a sand bar two miles below the ford. Gordon and the other horses have not yet been recovered.

Another case of drowning was that of Robert Gordon, whose home was in Auburn County, New Mexico. He attempted yesterday to ford Spencer's Creek with a two-horse team. The current was too strong. The horse's head was caught in the ford and the buggy and one horse, still alive, were found on a sand bar two miles below the ford. Gordon and the other horses have not yet been recovered.

The Lynchers.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 6.—The following lynches from Meadville, Franklin County, Mississippi, where the jail was cleared out by lynchers last week.

The white man, Brown Sullivan, who was tried at Meadville, on a charge of venous suffocation, for the murder of Freeman, last year, was yesterday acquitted. This was one of the most atrocious murders ever committed in Mississippi, the strongest evidence going to show the guilt of Freeman was by Brown Sullivan and his father, Dan Sullivan, and shot down in a country road. Brown Sullivan was the first man called for by the mob, which lynched the four negroes in Meadville on the night of September 30, and the fact that the Sheriff of Jefferson County was treated four days later, and then him over to the Franklin jail, was all that then saved his neck. Great indignation was expressed at the arrest of Freeman, and the result of the trial shows that the want of confidence in the courts is well founded. Monday night, in Adams County, Mississippi, but near the line of Franklin, was the wholesale lynching of four negroes took place last week, a mixed mob of whites and negroes, armed with revolvers and knives, and the result of the trial shows that the want of confidence in the courts is well founded. Monday night, in Adams County, Mississippi, but near the line of Franklin, was the wholesale lynching of four negroes took place last week, a mixed mob of whites and negroes, armed with revolvers and knives, and the result of the trial shows that the want of confidence in the courts is well founded.

A TRUSTED EMPLOYEE.

He Stole His Employer's Money and Starved His Family.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—William English, who for several years has been in the employ of Meyer Goldsmith, an extensive shipper of cattle to the West, was yesterday charged with embezzlement. English was a trusted employee of Goldsmith, and had charge of the drivers who went across the ocean to care for the cattle shipped from the steamer. He was in the habit of presenting bills for the wages and expenses of these men, and was supposed to be a trustworthy man. He was charged with the embezzlement of $1,140.50. He was arrested at No. 77 St. Mark's place. The officers found that his wife and four children were living there in abject poverty. The wife gave birth to a child Tuesday, and she and the children were actually suffering from want of food in the apartment, and the officers did not have a cent with which to purchase any. The officers were so touched by the deplorable condition in which they found her that they procured a nurse for the woman from Barbara Home. A subscription was taken up among the members of the detective force, and a purse of $20 was sent to Mrs. English admitted that he had embezzled the money and let it at horse races. He was looked up by police officers and taken to the police station.

UNITED STATES MEDIATION.

Minister Young's Efforts to Bring About Peace in China.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The Times in its editorial columns tonight sought the success of Young's mediation in Chinese matters. It says his ready sympathy with Mr. Hung Chang showed he had more kindness of heart than diplomat to have.

Editor and Scientist Exploring the Wilds of Montana.

FORT KNOX, M. T., Oct. 6.—A large excursion party consisting of representatives of a great many eastern papers and a number of scientists left Helena a day or two ago for a voyage down the Missouri River to Fort Benton. The party are provided with strong Mackinaw boats and are prepared for rough times. The purpose of the excursion is to explore the grand scenery on the American Continent, and the voyage has never been attempted by man.

A Chinaman Naturalized.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 6.—Wah Lee Yow, a Chinese immigrant, recently married a white woman, and has been granted citizenship papers, having taken out his first papers four years ago. The question was raised whether he was eligible, as he was of the race, but he could become naturalized, and the case was continued. Probate Judge Tilden to-day heard argument and issued citizenship papers to Wah Lee Yow, who exhibited celestial delight when made to understand that he was "alike some Melancon."

A Mother's Grief.

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 6.—Mrs. Walter Hawley yesterday drove from a window to the ground, a distance of twenty feet, but escaped serious injury. She was driven from her back door by a horse that she had never recovered from the shock caused by the death of her child. She declares, however, that she did not mean to commit suicide.

under instructions from Washington, had informed Li Hung Chang that the French Government had requested the extradition of the United States Government.

It has been learned, however, that Mr. Young recently visited the American Legation in Peking. He has been at Tien Tsin, which is only about twenty miles distant from Peking. While there he had audience with Li Hung Chang, but was not instructed to convey any request on the part of France for mediation.

WEALTHY BUT INSANE.

A Woman Arrested While Ringing Up the Residents of Irving Place.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Pulling door knobs and running away without waiting for an answer struck Policeman John W. Smith as queer conduct for a lady, as he watched a nicely dressed woman in Irving Place early yesterday morning, and he arrested her. Her dress glittered on the fingers of the policeman. She was transferred to Bellevue Hospital as an insane patient.

The woman said she was Mrs. Kate Cavenro Pritch, and that she lived at 20 East Twenty-third street. She was at first supposed to be the missing Miss Carpenter, of Brooklyn, as she answers the description of the latter almost exactly. Nothing could be learned about her friends. She asked to be taken to the Allegheny Hotel, but nothing was known about her there. At No. 30 East Twenty-third street, New York, it was learned that Mrs. Pritch had occupied a room there from October, 1883, until last July, when she went away with her daughter. It was supposed that the daughter, Mrs. Pritch, received a remittance of about $25 a month from some unknown source. Her husband, she said, was dead, and she was living with a friend, Mr. Miller, at 30 East Twenty-third street. Mrs. Miller at present resides in that city. It is said that Mrs. Pritch belongs to a well-known family in New York, and that she is a great singer, and otherwise acts in a great manner. The exact amount of her fortune is not known. She has been placed in the insane pavilion, where she will be kept until her friends come to her with managers.

THREE MEN KILLED.

A Hand Car Run Down by a Special Train.

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 6.—About 7 o'clock Saturday morning a section gang, composed of Pat Donnan, James Monahan, Mike Flanagan, and two other men, were on their daily work near Belmont, twenty miles west of here. They were working along at a moderate speed on their hand-car, thinking of no danger, and were proceeding on their way, and supposed the track clear. But, unknown to them, a special train from Columbus, Ohio, bearing a load of lumber, was on the Ohio River, loomed up not 300 feet ahead of them. There was no time to save themselves. Two men were killed, and the hand-car just as the engine struck it, and crashed with serious wounds. Burt, Donnan, Monahan, and Flanagan were killed. The car when the engine struck it, splintering it, threw it high in the air. The men struck with terrible force against the front plate of the boiler, and were hurled into the air, bleeding like the side of the track. Death was instantaneous. The grief of the families of the dead and wounded men was terrible to see.

TAKING A TUMBLE.

Three Persons Injured by a Balcony Falling at a Fair.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 6.—The balcony of the main building at the North Lank Agricultural Society's grounds, where a fair was held with a dreadful crash shortly before 3 o'clock Friday last. It was owing to a very large crowd standing on the balcony that the structure fell. The fall was so sudden that the interior of the hall was crowded with spectators. An exciting stampede occurred, in which many were badly crushed, and injured. Those seriously injured were Miss Enaley, aged fourteen, bruised, and now lies in a precarious condition; Mrs. Robertson, leg broken, and Miss Barr, serious hurt.

DARING ADVENTURES.

Democratic Rally at Ripley.

The Democrats of Maysville and Mason County, Ky., and Aberdeen, Ohio, are cordially invited to attend a grand rally of the Democracy at Ripley, on Tuesday night, October 7th. Torch-light procession, eminent speakers, music, etc.

J. C. SHUMAKER,
Pres. Cleveland and Hendricks Club.

The new bell for the opera house has been received.

Mr. WADSWORTH is at home today fixing up his fences. They need repairing badly.

Mr. A. J. BROWN had his life insured in the New York Life for $2,000 and the Southern Mutual, of Louisville, for $1,000.

Mr. SAN POLITT will run his omnibus to the Germantown fair grounds during the fall, leaving this city every morning at seven o'clock.

HACKER'S Reed and Cornet Band has been engaged to furnish the music at the Democratic demonstration at Aberdeen, next Wednesday evening.

Mr. JOHN T. JEFFERSON will offer at public sale, October 22, at his residence, near Shannon, a lot of stock, corn, tobacco, farming implements, etc.

The Republican clubs of this city, should adopt a coat of arms. We suggest as a design crossed muzzles with a hand bell rampant on an argent field.

A STATEMENT by the First National Bank is printed elsewhere. A glance at the figures will show that it is one of the soundest and one of the best managed financial institutions in the State.

We are informed that Col. J. S. Hart is working for Mr. Wadsworth in Bath County. This strengthens the belief that Mr. Wadsworth voted for Hart and against Culbertson at the election two years ago.

The Republicans are doing their work in the Congressional race secretly. The glare of the light should be thrown on them and the dark-lantern work frustrated. Watch for it and crush it wherever it appears.

JUDGE E. WHITAKER addressed the Democracy at Burtonville, on Saturday afternoon, and spoke at Orangeburg at night. A Cleveland, Hendricks and Powers club, with about fifty members, was organized at the latter place.

We hope that the Democrats of Mason, and especially members of the Cleveland and Hendricks club, will go to Ripley, on Tuesday night. Hon. Mike Ryan, Emil Rothe, A. D. Marsh and Chilton A. White will address the mass meeting.

Mr. HERMAN LANGER, the jeweler, has just received the handsomest line of clocks ever shown in this city. They are now on exhibition and you are invited to call and look at them whether you desire to buy or not. Mr. Langer guarantees that his prices are as low as any other dealer can offer.

Mr. GEORGE R. GILG and Mr. John L. Whitaker, by invitation, addressed the Cleveland Hendricks and Powers club, at Maysick on Saturday. There was a good attendance and the speakers were warmly applauded. The Democracy of Maysick is solid in support of National and Congressional tickets.

The following is the official receipt used by the Government in dressing harness: one gallon neatfoot oil, two pounds bayberry tallow, two pounds beef tallow. Put the above in a pan over a moderate fire. When thoroughly dissolved add two quarts of castor oil, then while on the fire stir in one ounce of lampblack. Mix well and strain through a fine cloth to remove sediment, let cool, and you have as fine a dressing for harness or leather of any kind as can be had.

The Mason and Bracken Agricultural Association hold their annual fair this week on their beautiful grounds near Germantown. Their catalogue of premiums in both ring and floral hall will satisfy the most exacting exhibitor and will bring a competition and display that will please the most fastidious. The company is composed of gentlemen who are noted for their hospitality and for well-filled baskets on such occasions, and we vouch for a pleasant day to all who may attend.

The Greatest Show on Earth.

Barnum, Bailey and Hutchinson alone are entitled to the credit of giving such an exhibition as is to be here on Saturday, October 18th, and no other entertainment in the world wins such golden praise from the press of the country. The Daily Times, of Chicago, comments: "The Barnum and London combined shows, with their special attractions of Jumbo and the sacred white elephant of Siam, arrived in Chicago on Sunday, and spread their vast area of canvases on the lake front. The street parade, which proceeded the opening performance, and which was certainly the grandest exhibit of the kind ever given in this city, was witnessed by thousands of people, who thronged the sidewalks along the line of march. The arrangements for the daily performances are complete in every respect, and by an admirable system of admittance and of transferring from one department to another, the discomfort and confusion usually attendant on such gigantic exhibitions are entirely avoided. The visitor enters and, after passing through the museum and menagerie, enters the amphitheatre, which has a seating capacity of fifteen thousand. A very large audience greeted the initial performance afternoon and last evening. There is an indescribable charm about a circus. The delight of witnessing a good ring performance is not confined to any one class, nor to any age or sex, as was attested by the character of the audience yesterday and the appreciation that was manifested in frequent thunders of applause and roars of laughter. It would be difficult to imagine a better combination than that offered by Mr. Barnum this year. There is the triple circus in the ring, and a huge elevated stage for wrestling, fencing, roller skating, boxing, juggling, bicycling, etc.; there are two acrobaticists, aerialists and trapezists; there are two menageries of wild and trained animals, including the sacred white elephant, the famous Jumbo, the two baby elephants, the clown elephant, thirty-two camels, ponies, zebras, and many other rare and curious beasts confined in elegant cages; there is a museum of living wonders, with fat people, skeletons, giants, dwarfs, Albinos, and all the rest; there are chariot races, steep-chases, hurdle, punning and obstacle races, performing elephants and horses, and myriads of strange and interesting sights, many of which are new even to the regular patron of the circus. The bill was a long one, and exceptionally well chosen and sustained. Commencing with the grand entry, in which the strength of the company and the best portion of the menagerie were paraded until the closing act of hard riding and revolver fuelling, the interest was not permitted to flag for an instant. Particularly worthy of mention were the wonderful performances of Juan Calido on the slack wire, the gladiatorial postings of the Gifford brothers, and the riding of Morgan, Elena Jeal and Orrin Hollis. The hippodrome races were both exciting and amusing, the Roman chariot race being especially grand, and the obstacle race particularly novel and laughable. A feature of the museum is a group of desert Arabs from the Sudan. There are also specimens of high and low caste Hindoos and auto dancers. In the menagerie the "white elephant"—a slate color pachyderm—is confined in an enclosure fitted up in oriental style, while a bevy of native attendants keep up a weird melody of sounds in homage to the sacred idol of the Siamese. The entire show is of such an unusually high order of excellence that the most exacting can not fail to be entertained and delighted.

The Democrats are not all fools. Enough of them are honest and wise to make certain the election of Mr. Wadsworth in November. —New Republic.

There is again. Once more it is admitted by Mr. Wadsworth's organ that he expects to be elected by Democratic votes. That is why Mr. Culbertson was thrust aside and the man who had said repeatedly he "had retired from politics" was brought out in his place. He expected to add to the 999 colored and the 873 white Republican votes, enough Democratic votes to carry the county by one thousand majority, as one of his enthusiastic friends stated in a letter to the Lexington Nation, and as it has been said by Mr. Wadsworth's friends time and again in the mountain counties. He probably expected to ring these Democratic votes in at the back door with a little hand bell just as it was attempted to do with the colored voters. As we said once before the Republican party in nominating Mr. Wadsworth are the victims of misplaced confidence. The goods his friends have contracted to deliver cannot be delivered as time will show.

The statement in the BULLETIN that the two negroes, arrested on suspicion of being guilty of the murderous attack on Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Briggs, near Concord, had been examined and discharged, was a mistake. The two men, Burns and Bevins, wanted an examination and were admitted to bail in the sum of $500 each. They gave the bail and were released.

As Carl Schurz says, Blaine is trying to cover his moral deformity with a tariff fix leaf.

The dance given by a couple of young ladies of Grant street one evening last week was a delightful and most enjoyed affair. The gallant knights and fair ladies tripped the light fantastic toe until the wee sma' hours, when each separated feeling better for having been there.

It is estimated in Washington that it cost the Republican party $250,000 to "vindicate" Blaine in the State of Maine. Of this Mr. Blaine personally contributed $35,000. Six months of the Presidency, with its broad channels of usefulness, would enable Mr. Blaine to gracefully recoup himself. However, he has embarked a great deal of money in a risky enterprise.

Democratic Speaking.

Hon. James A. McKenize will speak in this district at the time and place given below:

Yazooport, Wednesday, October 8th.
Greenville, Thursday, October 9th.
Columbia, Friday, October 10th.
Louisiana, Saturday, October 11th.
Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn will speak as follows:

Oregonville, Tuesday, October 14th.
Carleton, Wednesday, October 15th.
S. S. Savage, Democratic elector for this district, will speak at Yazooport, Monday, October 20th.
Greenville, Tuesday, October 21st.
Grayson, Wednesday, October 22nd.
Ashland, Saturday, October 25th.
Columbia, Monday, October 27th.

The Democrats must not be deceived by the apparent apathy of the Republicans in the Congressional race. They are working secretly all over the district, and expect to win by a "still hunt" and all that such work implies. The Republican papers of the district have been deceived, and are taking no part in the canvass. The real work is being done by strikers in every county in the district. Democrats are warned to be on their guard and meet the secret schemes of Mr. Wadsworth's agents whenever they are attempted to be put in operation. It is the policy of Mr. Wadsworth's managers to create the impression that his defeat is admitted, with the hope of weakening the opposition to him by throwing the Democracy off their guard. Don't be deceived. Go to work immediately. Look for every hour and every minute up to the day of election and Democratic success is assured.

Moscow vs. Maysville.

EL BULBUL: The series of games that were to take place between the Moscow and Maysville club, ended in the eighth inning of the second game in favor of the Maysvilles, in a score of eight to two. The first game was a draw, and the second was called on account of darkness and a little dissatisfaction on the part of our home team. The umpire, who was called in to see the game, but his decision on a simple rule was questioned, and resulted in the pitcher of the Maysvilles throwing up the sponge. Frank Wheatly was cheered loudly as he took the stand and delivered his balls of many curves to good effect. The umpire not being used to such zigzags got his nose slightly disfigured. He was succeeded by Wm. Lynch, who distinguished himself by his fair play. X.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently mistaken for a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or of the bowels. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as belching, flatulency, or a sense of fullness in the stomach, etc. A mistake, like perspiration, produces a very disagreeable result after getting warm, is a common attendant. Internal bleeding and hemorrhoids are due to the application of Dr. Ross's Sile Remedy, which acts directly on the diseased tissue, absorbing the tumor, allaying the inflammation, and affecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address: Geo. T. Wood, Medicine Co., Fiqua, O. Sold by Geo. T. Wood.

GONE CRAZY FROM GRIEF

Caused by the Loss of Money in a Suspended Savings Bank.

Three Victims Detected Making Preparations for Self-Destruction After Having Starved and Otherwise Punished Themselves.

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 4.—The timely interference of the authorities Friday prevented a horrible tragedy, for which arrangements were being made by Mr. and Mrs. George Schreck and John Flick, all three of whom were driven insane through the wreck of the Erie County Savings Bank by its rasally manager.

Schreck, his wife and little children and their friend lived on Myrtle street, and had $18, the savings of four years, deposited in the bank when it suspended. Their wives were hearts, ding, and for weeks they hung around the bank doors, wringing their hands and cursing the cashier. Their minds gradually sank under the strain, until it became evident to their neighbors that all three were mad.

A visit to the house Friday disclosed a terrible state of affairs. Under the impression that God was punishing them for sin, they were trying to expiate their imaginary crime by self-flagellation and fasting. The three children were found nearly dead from starvation. The baby was struggling to obtain some sustenance from breasts that were dry, while the adults sat motionless and passionately exhorting the Almighty to forgive them. The assistance offered was rendered as an interference with the will of God and neighbors were driven away.

Two officers found the man and woman digging a grave in the back yard, and fearing that something was wrong inside, they entered in time to prevent a horrible tragedy. They had decided to emulate the death of Christ. Schreck was to be the Savior, Mrs. Schreck the Holy Mother, and Flick was to do the killing, which was to be followed by a realistic representation of Herod's slaughter of the children.

Dr. Gerner, Health Officer, reported these facts to Judge Galbraith, and the unfortunate people are now in custody awaiting the decision of the lunacy commissioners.

REMARKABLE STORY.

Forty-Six Needles Taken From the Arms of a Woman.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Mrs. Seely, living in the town of Saratoga, between the forks of the Cataraugus and the foot of Lord Hill, some time since complained of pain in her arm. Dr. George N. Kingman, of Saratoga, discovered that there were needles in the muscles. He applied a poultice and a few days afterward took out several needles. This he has repeated. The other arm was similarly affected and likewise treated, with like result. At last accounts he had taken from the woman's arm forty-six needles, or pieces. All were broken, some having fine points, others were broken at both ends, resembling pieces of wire. The case is mysterious. The woman claims to be unaware of how or when the needles were introduced into her system.

A WOMAN'S DARING

Saved the Lives of Three Men and the Loss of Property.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 6.—What might have been a serious disaster in a mine was prevented yesterday within the corporate limits of Georgetown by the presence of mind and activity of a woman. Mrs. Rabado observed a blaze coming out of the drift of the Centennial Mine, and seeing the danger to the mine, she rushed into the mouth of the mine. Within the circle of the flames were some twenty pounds of giant powder, and four boxes of giant caps sufficient to obliterate the mouth of the mine. She poured the water on the explosives, and brought a sufficient quantity afterward to check the flames. The boxes of explosives were badly charred, but no other damage was done. Three men were at work 200 feet inside and knew nothing of their danger until all was over.

Instantly Killed.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 4.—John Pailer, contractor, of 1017 Vine street, left his horse stalled unattended on Race street, south of Liberty with one trace loosened and the lines fastened to the single-tree. A man carted a large animal, and he pushed out from behind the animal, the one trace through the wagon to one side of the street. At the fifteenth street, the animal, Frickeloff, twelve, was sweeping the street in front of her home, 542 Race, when the horse dashed toward her. Before she could get out of the way, the wagon lurched toward her, and striking her, threw her under the horse, and before she could be rescued, she was trampled to death. Pailer was immediately arrested and held at Bremen street police station on a charge of manslaughter, under $2,000 bond.

A Doctor's Suicide.

MONTREAL, Oct. 6.—A sensation was caused here last night by an attempted suicide in the Jacques Carter Hotel. Mrs. Goddard, a wealthy American lady from Philadelphia, arrived in the city on Wednesday, September 24, being accompanied by her two children and Dr. Phillips, a young Philadelphia physician, who acted as her medical attendant. Dr. Phillips had acted very strangely for the last few days, and last night attempted to take his life by drinking a large dose of tincture of digitalis. A doctor was called in, who administered antidotes, but the unfortunate man is in a critical condition, and it is not expected that he will recover.

Four, and Perhaps Six, Murdered.

FULLERTON, Neb., Oct. 6.—Thirteen miles west of here Mr. and Mrs. Percival and child, and Hugh Meyer, all English people, were murdered Monday night or early Tuesday morning. Their bodies were discovered last night. The Percivals were shot and Meyer smothered. Percival was a well-to-do farmer. There is no clue to the murders. Two more men in the vicinity are being searched, and search being made for their bodies on the supposition that they too have been murdered. Coroner Smith and a posse have gone to the scene.

A Deficiency of $210,000.
NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 6.—Expert accountants report a deficiency of $240,000 in the accounts of the late John W. Stuart, treasurer of Newark, from 1891 to 1893. His bondsmen will be sued for the amount.

Mutual Exchange.

MADRID, Oct. 6.—It is stated here that the United States Government is willing to reduce the duties on American goods in exchange for Cuba, if Cuban duties on cereal will be abolished.
